FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Dear Parents,

Congratulations to the positive behaviour award recipients from last assembly; Bree Harvie, Aleisha Price and Shane Wandel.

Thank you to P&C Members – Emma & Greg Forrest, Mel Glare, Sally Batten, Dave Harris and Stacey Price for the organisation and preparation of the Rotary Dinner last Thursday. A big thank you to Kate Hutton (Emma’s mother) for the food preparation and Phil Scott Catering for the loan of tables, chairs, cutlery and crockery. A special thank you to our school leaders who were the waiters and waitresses- Nykia, Teagan, Mackenzie, Shanay, Cassidy, Ryan, Olivia, Ella and Crystal.

Thank you to Corowa Rotary for their generous financial donation to the P & C for the dinner.

Dean Whymark, Albury NRL Development Officer – presented a program ‘Tackle Bullying’ to our Year3/4 and 5/6 classes last week. Dean will return next term to conduct workshops with our K-6 classes.

Tree Inspection – Following an audit of our school grounds, we have restricted the play areas until tree pruning. For the safety of the children and community, we hope that you will encourage your child to stay away from the enclosed areas, until further notice.

Congratulations to our three qualifiers – Bailey Minogue, Tom Forrest and Nykia Butler who all qualified for the Regional Swimming Carnival in Albury.

Football trials – AFL. Best wishes go with the following Bailey, Angas, Ryan and Wil who are attending the Albury Zone trials in Albury this afternoon.

Karen Kissell - Principal

Thank you to the Harvie family for the donation of a carton on tissues for use in the classrooms. Your generosity is appreciated.

Scripture commenced last week. We thank Sandra Moloney, Tom Wall and Graham Brown who give up their time each week to support our school and students.

Corowa Community Garage Sale
Saturday 22 March 8am – 2pm
Many households within the Corowa / Wahgunyah area holding a garage sale on the one day. Maps showing the location of all the garage sales, and the types of items for sale, will be available to ‘shoppers’ for $2 in the car park outside Corowa Public School in Honour Ave (the road to Albury) from 7.45am on the day. Proceeds support the local and overseas missions of Corowa Baptist Church.
Many shoppers come from far and wide to attend the community garage sale - Registration for Corowa/Wahgunyah residents open until Tuesday 18th March at ‘Creations & Revelations’ Op Shop, 94 Sanger St, Corowa.

Organised by Corowa Baptist Church Enquiries: 02 6033 2468

Wet and Dry Environments Excursion
Students in Kindergarten, Year 1 and Year 2 participated in a morning of discovery yesterday. We learned about the history of both locations and what to look for when identifying plants. The students were also able to note the difference in temperature between the wetland environment and the grassy box woodland environment.
Thanks to Natasha Lappin for the variety of activities to enhance the students’ ability in making informed field observations.
Kate Taylor Yr1/2 Teacher and Lee McDonald K/1 Teacher.
